

- Q Was that the only occasion in 1922 that your relatives from Columbia visited you? A. Yes, had not seen them in years.
- Q Before that? A. Before that. He had married my cousin, this Riel had.
- Q How do you spell his name? A. R-I-E-L. Ralph Riel.
- Q How is it you connected the visit of your relatives with Mr. Stevens? A. Well, when I picked up a press, or the papers after the Hall-Mills and read of the Hall-Mills murder, I said, "Why, that is the night that we were fishing on the beach with Stevens."
- Q When was the first time that you picked up the paper and read about the Hall-Mills murder? A. On my oath, I would not want to say whether it was Saturday or Sunday.
- Q But it was either one of those? A. But it was after the bodies were found, after the publication came out in the papers, because I take the daily papers.
- Q Would you say that it was-- A. I should say it was Saturday, Saturday night. Now, let us get that right, about Saturday night.
- Q You would say it was Saturday night? A. Could it get in Saturday night if the bodies were found on Saturday morning?
- Q You say it was either Saturday night or Sunday?
